

Suzanne and Jim present...

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

"Oh Beautiful for Spacious Skies, For Amber Waves of Grain"

As part of their continuing studies into the music of our collective American consciousness Suzanne and Jim have assembled a captivating array of traditional patriotic music.

Throughout American history songs have portrayed our patriotic spirit. Whether they have been hymns, national anthems, military airs, or popular songs from entertainment media these songs are an intimate part of our national heritage. Traditional, well known melodies such as Yankee Doodle and When Johnny Comes Marching Home are so familiar it is as if we were born singing them.

Interweaving stories from the past with awarding-winning performance on a variety of acoustic instruments, five string banjo, guitar, flute (and a few surprises) Suzanne and Jim bring these patriotic melodies to life celebrating our national
